

Congratulations! Someone really likes you, because they've given you a subscription to The Rumpus Letters for Kids!

What does that mean? Twice a month you'll receive a letter in the mail from a children's author!

Some of the letters will be illustrated or have photos or doodles. Some will be written by hand. Some will be in color, some will be in black and white. It's hard to say! All of them will be signed. We'll copy the letters, fold them, put them in an envelope, put a first-class stamp on the envelope, and send the letters to you!

The authors will include a mailing address on their letter so you can write back. They love hearing from you!

If you have any questions or need to change your address or any other kind of customer service, just write me at marisa@therumpus.net and I'll help you out.

Happy reading!
